

High Expectations- Bobby Clinton

Bobby Clinton, a leadership professor says, people tend to rise to the level of your expectations as a leader, mentor, teacher or employer... the problem, we tend to expect to little.

So lets clarify expectations with those you lead and influence?

What about your hopes and expectations?

What does success look like for you a year from now, in your personal, professional, and spiritual life? (Have a copy of the three domain descriptions)

*What are your dreams in the next three years?

What is the #1 thing you would like to improve personally, professionally, spiritually this next year?

What do you need from me in this relationship to help you be successful?

Here are my hopes and expectations?

In this relationship as a mentor, coach, employer, teacher, I expect

These attitudes...

These commitments...

These outcomes...

SummitTrek Three Domains

Personal

Self - physical, emotional, intellectual

Family- marriage, parenting, finances

Friends- men, couples

Professional

Leadership at the next level

Working out of passions and unique abilities

Career Development Plan

Spiritual

Walk with Christ

Kingdom Assignment